

Conference

Modern France in World Economy and International Relations

07 December 2015, 09.30-18.30 – IMEMO, Profsoyuznaya Str. 23, Moscow

10:00-12:00 Plenary session

Welcoming

Corr. member of RAS, Prof. Alexey Kuznetsov (deputy director of IMEMO)

Jean-Maurice Ripert (Ambassador of France in Russia)

- Prof. Yuri Rubinsky (Institute of Europe, head of Center for French studies) – France is searching for itself
- Dr. Andrei Kudryavtsev (IMEMO, senior researcher) – The economy of France on the break
- Prof. Natalia Lapina (INION, chief researcher) – Institutions and elites of the Fifth Republic
- Dubien Arnault (Observatoire franco-russe, director) – The political life of France: trends and changes
- Prof. Evgenia Obichkina (MGIMO, professor) – François Hollande's foreign policy: problems and prospects

12:00-12:15 Coffee break

12:15-12:45 Section 1

France: social and economic development

Moderator – Dr. Andrei Kudryavtsev (senior researcher at Center for European studies, IMEMO)

- Dr. Ekaterina Ryzhkova (MGIMO, associated professor) – Public finance in France, year 2015: results and prospects
- Dr. Elena Chernoutsan (IMEMO, senior researcher) – Development specificity of the national innovation system in France: major problems and contradictions
- Dr. Zhanna Komissarova (MGIMO, senior lecturer) – Foreign economic relations of France: evolution, current state and prospects
- Dr. Anna Chetverikova (IMEMO, senior researcher) – Transformation of Russian-French economic relations in conditions of sanctions

Discussion

13:45-14:30 Lunch

14:30-18:30 Section 2

Domestic political development of France

Moderator – Prof. Marina Klinova (leading researcher at Center for European studies, IMEMO)

- Prof. Vladislav Smirnov (Lomonosov Moscow State University, professor) – France is between globalism and nationalism
- Dr. Maria Uvarova (Moscow State Linguistic University, associated professor) – Bonapartism and Gaullism: lessons and opportunities for France of the 21st century
- Dr. Georgy Moiseyev (Lomonosov Moscow State University, associated professor) – Giscardism as a model of political leadership
- Dr. Olga Trofimova (IMEMO, senior researcher) – Migration trends in France: new realities
- Dr. Evgeniy Osipov (Institute of World History, senior researcher) – French intellectuals about January 2015 (case "Charlie Hebdo"): French society development
- Dr. Irina Novozhenova (INION, senior researcher) – Migration crisis in Europe: public debate in France

16:00-16:15 Coffee break

- Dr. Arina Preobrazhenskaya (IMEMO, researcher) – French voters about parties on the eve of the presidential campaign-2017
- Dr. Natalia Naumova (Lomonosov Moscow State University, associated professor) – The "Gaullist turn" in the strategy of the National Front (2013-2015)
- Prof. Galina Kaninskaya (Yaroslavl State University, head of the Chair of world history) –French environmentalists: ups and downs on the left flank
- Dr. Alexander Vershinin (CENTERO, senior researcher) – "Other Left" in France: current state and political perspectives
- Nadezhda Uzunova (Russian Institute for Strategic Research, researcher) – European vector in the politics of "Republicans"

Discussion

14:30-18:30 Section 3

Foreign policy of modern France

Moderator – Prof. Yuri Rubinsky (head of Center for French studies, Institute of Europe RAS)

- Dr. Ekaterina Narochitskaya (INION, leading researcher) – Foreign policy heritage of Gaullism in modern France
- Prof. Yury Borko (Institute of Europe, head of EU documentation center) – France in European integration: evolution of concepts and policy (1950-2015)
- Prof. Pavel Tsygankov (Lomonosov Moscow State University, head of Chair for sociology of international relations) – Geopolitologists of France about the state of Russian-French relations
- Dr. Sergey Fedorov (Institute of Europe, leading researcher) – France-EU relations. Was there a "return to Europe"?
- Prof. Marina Strezhneva (IMEMO, head of Section of institutional studies of international relations) – France and political aspects of the Economic and Monetary Union in the EU
- Prof. Tatyana Zvereva (Russian Diplomatic Academy, head of Center of Euro-Atlantic research and international security) – France and the immigration crisis in the EU
- Dr. Yuri Kvashnin (IMEMO, head of Section for EU studies) – Debt crisis in Greece and the position of France
- Dr. Vladimir Olenchenko (IMEMO, senior researcher) – France's Attitude to the European Union's Eastern Partnership Program

16:00-16:15 Coffee break

- Prof. Grigory Lansky (Russian State University of Humanities, dean of faculty) – The doctrine of Atlanticism in foreign policy course of France at the beginning of the XXI century
- Dr. Kira Zueva (IMEMO, senior researcher) – France-NATO relations at the beginning of the XXI century
- Dr. Pavel Timofeev (IMEMO, researcher) – Relations between Russia and France: current problems and state
- Dr. Natalia Mikheeva (St. Petersburg State University, associated professor) – France and Eastern Mediterranean: luck and miscalculations in the development of cooperation systems
- Dr. Ivan Kononov (Center for Strategic Conjuncture, director) – France in Africa: interests and military policy
- Dr. Maria Osminina (Nizhny Novgorod state University, senior lecturer) – Common trends in Franco-African relations: impact of the Russian Federation
- Dr. Oleg Timofeev (State University of Management, associated professor) – Current state and prospects of the Franco-Chinese partnership
- Dr. Tatyana Andreeva (IMEMO, senior researcher) – The current state of Anglo-French cooperation

Discussion