

Financial sector in the oil exporting countries

3 June, 2014

Venue: Institute of World Economy and International Relations (IMEMO), Moscow, Russia

Preliminary Programme (as of 21 May, 2014)

10.00 Registration, coffee

10.30 a.m. Opening Remarks

Directorate IMEMO (TBC)

Professor Yelena Kalyuzhnova, Director, The Centre for Euro-Asian Studies, The University of Reading, UK

10.45 a.m. Session I: Economic Growth, Banks and Public Finance in Resource Rich Countries

Chair: Professor Yelena Kalyuzhnova, Director, The Centre for Euro-Asian Studies, The University of Reading, UK

Presentations:

Kairat Kelimbetov, Head of the National Bank of Kazakhstan, and
Stanislav Zhukov, Head of the Center for Energy Studies, IMEMO

Factors of long-term economic growth of Kazakhstan and the requirements to the financial system

Professor Yelena Kalyuzhnova, The Centre for Euro-Asian Studies, The University of Reading, UK and Professor Ali Kutan, Department of Economics and Finance, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, USA

The National Fund of the Republic of Kazakhstan, EMBI and financial market beyond 2008 crisis

Professor Galina Panova, MGIMO, Russia

Mega- regulation of the financial markets in Russia: problems and perspectives

12.00 Coffee Break

12.30 p.m. Section II: Financial Markets in Resource Rich Economies

Dr Lúcio Vinhas de Souza, Managing Director Moody's and Dr Anna Tsibulina, MGIMO

Equity Markets and Financial Development (Topic to be corrected)

Ivan Kopytin, the Center for Energy Studies, IMEMO

Russia and Norway: do equity markets react to the world oil price?

Alexander Maslennikov, the Center for Energy Studies, IMEMO

US spot and financial natural gas market: implications for Russia

1.30 p.m. Concluding Remarks

Summaries by Professor Stanislav Zhukov and Professor Yelena Kalyuzhnova

2.00 p.m. End of the Seminar