

Dear Sasha:

I was truly saddened to learn about the passing of Evgenyi Maksimovich.

I know how much he was involved in the life of IMEMO and in your own life, and understand that this is a difficult time.

Hope you and the family are well.

I'm at the National until Friday, endeavoring to comprehend why so many people who have spent decades trying to help are now foreign agents.

Best regards,

Harley